

THE POWER OF NURSES: FRONTLINE LEADERS TAKE ZAMBIA TOWARD SDG#3 AND UHC

Panel and discussion on Zambia program to advance nurse leadership in community health

EVENT DETAILS

Tuesday, March 27, 2018, 8:30 AM – 10:00 AM EST (8:00 AM continental breakfast)

Purpose: To highlight Zambia's investment in nurse leadership to guide community providers and community members in safe, quality care toward the sustainable development goals and universal health coverage

Sponsors: IntraHealth International, mPowering Frontline Health Workers, and the University of Zambia

Location: mPowering Frontline Health Workers Initiative/Jhpiego, 1776 Massachusetts Avenue, NW, Suite #100, Washington, DC 20036

Webinar link: <https://mcsprogram.adobeconnect.com/powerurse/>

AGENDA & SPEAKERS

Topic	Speaker / Facilitator	Time
Introduction	Allison Annette Foster, IntraHealth International	8:30 – 8:40 am
Results and Scale	Marjorie Makukula, School of Nursing, University of Zambia	8:40 – 8:55 am
Technologies	Alice Liu, mPowering Frontline Health Workers Initiative and Director, Digital Health, Jhpiego	8:55 – 9:05 am
Role of Nurses	Rita Kalomo, Zambia Union of Nurses Organization (ZUNO)	9:05 – 9:15 am
Q&A Facilitation	Allison Annette Foster, IntraHealth International	9:15 – 10:00 am

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

- mPowering ORB platform for mobile-friendly training content: <http://www.health-orb.org>
- PHC2C on IntraHealth's website: <https://www.intrahealth.org/phc2c>
- World Population and Health Journal series: <http://www.longwoods.com/content/25305>
- Nursing Now: <https://www.intrahealth.org/events/nursing-now-global-launch>

